CAPELLA BALI

AN EXPERIENCE OF THE FIRST EUROPEAN SETTLERS

BALI

TOP 10 BEST RESORT IN THE WORLD

INTRODUCTION

BALI CAPELLA UBUD

Capella Ubud, Bali brings a new definition to the jungle experience with a true rainforest camp, nestled within lush forest terrain and sloping rice terraces, is brought to life by celebrated architect Bill Bensley.

Inspired by the first Europeans settlers in Bali in the early 1800s, Bensley created this sensational tented camp in tribute to their spirit of adventure. His design scheme for this jungle sanctuary takes its cue from the colonial décor brought to Bali by the European settlers, combining that aesthetic with local touches.

TENT FACTS

Each of the 23 tents are situated within a dramatic terraced landscape and nestled between lush rainforest, rice paddy fields, and the sacred Wos River, in an authentic Balinese artist village called Keliki. As a sustainable commitment, not a single tree was cut in the development of Capella Ubud.

Beautifully constructed against a dramatic backdrop of lush greenery and terraced landscapes, each of the 22 one-bedroom tents and the two-bedroom lodge feature salt water pools, large outdoor decks and indoor and outdoor bathrooms. The retreat interiors carry a bespoke design theme based on the characters and professions of the early explorers, such as Captain, Naturalist, Cartographer, Translator, Toy Maker and Story Teller – a unique way to bring Bali's exotic past back to life.
